To celebrate the impending launch of the Expert Witness Institute’s presence in Singapore, Expert Witness Institute is pleased to present its inaugural seminar in Singapore on “The Role of an Expert in Dispute Resolution”.

In the disputes world, experts who give evidence in court and in arbitration are frequently necessary. More importantly, however, is perhaps the question of whether experts help the process or are they simply adding to the cost of dispute resolution. This seminar, under the auspices of the soon-to-be launched Singapore Branch of the Expert Witness Institute UK, seeks to start the conversation amongst Experts primarily based in Singapore. Experts will speak and assess their own role as it were. They will be joined by lawyers who, of course, regularly interact or deal with Experts. The Expert Witness Institute is privileged to have The Honourable Justice Quentin Loh of the Supreme Court of Singapore as its Guest of Honour and Keynote Speaker. Participants will have the opportunity to hear firsthand, Justice Loh’s views on Experts. Justice Loh is of course no stranger to experts or their evidence, having dealt with experts as a lawyer, arbitrator and judge. This seminar provides an excellent opportunity for experts and others, to join the conversation on the role of Experts in Singapore.
